

Dress for the season

■ Dress one child for winter and another for summer. Cut out the clothes and sort them into two groups.

Animals in winter

- Match the animal with the right speech bubble.

I live in the coldest place on earth. In the dark winter months I huddle up with other male penguins who are all keeping eggs warm under their very thick feathers.

I need a thick coat of fur to keep warm. It is white so that I can sneak up on the animals I hunt without being seen.

I have a thick white furry coat to stop hungry animals from seeing me easily and catching me.

I can work out which animal is speaking.
